A Word From Our Pastor

Easter Sunday
4/17/22

Dear St. Joseph Parish Family,

Happy Easter! Let us rejoice in Christ's resurrection, His triumph over sin and death. His victory is our victory; His journey to life beyond death is ours too if we follow Him. Today we celebrate that no matter how hard our lives may be, how much we may suffer, how much the world and its evil may press upon us, our lives will have a joyful and blessed ending if we stay with Jesus. The cross is not a final dead end, but a path to eternal life. It is so because of what Jesus did today: He rose from the dead, the firstborn of the many who follow.

We no longer need fear anything so long as we stay close to Christ. Our joy is certain and thus we have the freedom to rejoice in even the darkest moments. Let us then rejoice for Christ's victory has made our joy possible.

Have a blessed Easter!

Fr. Boniface Endorf O.P.

EASTER SUNDAY

First Reading: Acts 10:34a, 37-43

Peter discusses Jesus' life of preaching and healing. Jesus was crucified, and then he rose up and was seen by his chosen witnesses. Peter also mentions the importance of all the disciples bearing witness to what they saw, so that many people would believe in Jesus, and have their sins forgiven through him.

Second Reading: Colossians 3:1-4

Paul asserts that we must pay attention to higher realms rather than earthly concerns. Our life is not yet completely known to us, until Christ appears and we are raised to glory in him.

Gospel: John 20:1-9

When Mary Magdalene discovered Jesus' tomb was open, she told Simon Peter and another disciple. They ran to the tomb and Peter went inside. He found the burial wrappings on the ground, with the head covering separate from the rest. The other disciple came in and they believed what they saw, although until then they had not understood the Scripture's message of Jesus' resurrection.
