A Word From Our Pastor

8/21/22

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear St. Joseph Parish Family,

Our summer brothers and deacon have now gone back to DC to continue their studies and we're again a community of 5 friars. We're in the quiet days of August, but we are preparing for the work of this upcoming parish year—restarting various ministries, such as RCIA for people entering the Church, Religious Education classes, and many others. In other words, it's a slow news week. But there are many good things we're looking forward to this year at St. Joseph's!

Mass Tidbit:

After processing into the sanctuary and incensing the altar at the beginning of Mass, the celebrant goes to his chair. There he says “In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit” while making the sign of the Cross. We start with the sign of the Cross because it signifies the two deepest mysteries of our Faith: Christ through the Cross winning our salvation, and God as Trinity. We root our worship during Mass in the Trinity, ‘In the name of...,’ while marking ourselves with the Cross.

We know through Faith that the Son of the Father, Himself God, took a human nature to Himself and died on the Cross for our behalf, thus defeating sin and death and opening the way to heaven for us who follow. The Cross and resurrection is the means of our salvation and joy. Because Jesus is the Son of the Father, we also know that, although there is one God, God is also a Trinity of Persons, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Within the inner life of God there are Three Divine Persons who are the One God. Much can be said about that, but I'll leave the heavy theology out (this is just a ‘tidbit’ after all). Thus, we start Mass with an invocation of both deepest mysteries of our Faith.

God Bless,

Fr. Boniface Endorf O.P.

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 66:18-21

Isaiah portrays a time when people from many nations will gather in Jerusalem and proclaim God's glory. God's messengers will teach many nations about God. Just as the Israelites bring offerings, these messengers will bring people from all nations to worship.

Second Reading: Hebrews 12:5-7, 11-13

The Hebrews are told that God disciplines those he loves. When a parent disciplines a child, the child usually learns what is expected of him. The Hebrews are encouraged to face life's trials as a form of discipline, and attempt to learn something from them.

Gospel: Luke 13:22-30

Jesus warns that the door to God's kingdom will be locked for those who ignored his wishes. Many people will come from all nations and take their place in God's kingdom. Others will not be recognized by God, and he will reject them.
