Corpus Christi

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Corpus Christi, shorthand for The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, celebrates Jesus's ongoing gift of himself in his presence of the Eucharist. While we primarily mark the occasion with a Mass—the celebration of the Eucharist—today is connected with the worship of the Body of Christ outside of Mass. The continuing presence of Christ in the Eucharist will become even significant for our parish when we begin hosting a perpetual adoration chapel.

If I were to ask you, “How do you receive Communion?” you would probably go into some explanation of the posture for physical communion. Because we are tactical people, physical communion can seem primary, but in reality the communion we seek is spiritual communion.

Spiritual communion is sacramental unity of the soul with the body of Christ, Jesus and his Church. It is an interior transformation of you and me into the Body of Christ. We seek the Eucharist to change our hearts and make us Holy.

There are many opportunities of us to make acts of spiritual communion. At Mass, the priest elevates the Body and Blood of Christ immediately after the consecration in order for us to receive Holy Communion at that moment. We can also simply pray before the tabernacle or the monstrance outside of Mass. Today's procession, after the 11:30am Mass is another opportunity to make a spiritual communion with Jesus Christ, and to mark our neighborhood as claimed for him.

Pray that construction moves smoothly for our new adoration chapel, so that the presence of Christ may transform Greenwich Village, Manhattan, and the world.

Odds are that Fr. Boniface will return by next week. He has been in Providence, R.I. where he participating in the election of our new provincial, Fr. Darren Pierre, O.P.

In Christ,

Fr. Clement Dickie, O.P.
Parochial Vicar

CORPUS CHRISTI

First Reading: Genesis 14:18-20

Melchizedek, a priest of God, prayed that Abram would be blessed by God. He also praised God for delivering Abram's foes into his hands.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

Paul describes Jesus' actions during the last supper. Jesus broke bread and said it was his body given for us, asking that we do the same in remembrance of him. He then passed the cup and called it his blood. Jesus then asked us to break bread in this manner to remember his death until he returns.

Gospel: Luke 9:11b-17

Jesus spoke to a large crowd when his disciples asked that he dismiss the people to give them a chance to find food and lodging. Jesus asked the disciples to give the crowd something to eat, but they had only five loaves of bread and two fish. Jesus then blessed and distributed the food, which fed about 5,000 people. Twelve baskets were then collected from what was left over.
