Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear St. Joseph Parish Family,

I'm back at St. Joseph's! We finally finished our Provincial Chapter at Providence College and now I've returned home. I'm glad to be back and eager to see everyone.

On the Sacred Heart of Jesus this past Friday we reached a momentous day in America: the Supreme Court overturned Roe v. Wade. No longer is abortion protected as a constitutional right. For almost 50 years Catholics have been praying and fasting for this moment. Every year the largest annual march in DC is the March for Life, and now that long and hard work has been rewarded. The abortion issue now reverts to a state issue and each state will decide democratically how to regulate abortion. Thus, the work continues, but this is a signal day.

I was struck especially by God's providence in this case. Roe was overturned on the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus when we celebrate Jesus's love for all, even the unborn. The date, June 24th, is normally the Solemnity of the Nativity of John the Baptist, so going forward the ending of Roe will be celebrated on that feast day, which is fitting because it celebrates the birth of the last and greatest of the prophets who prepared the way of the Lord. We see in a special way today the fulfillment of the petition in the Our Father: "Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven."

Have a blessed week,

Fr. Boniface Endorf O.P.

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: 1 Kings 19:16b, 19-21

Elijah the prophet followed God's instruction to appoint a man named Elisha as his successor. Elijah threw his cloak over Elisha, who went and said good-bye to his family, then followed Elijah without question.

Second Reading: Galatians 5:1, 13-18

Paul reminds us that people were freed from the old law through Christ. But he makes it clear that this freedom does not mean giving in to evil desires. Instead, we must be guided by the Spirit and most importantly love our neighbor as ourselves.

Gospel: Luke 9:51-62

Jesus set out for Jerusalem, and passed through a town where he was not welcomed. He reprimanded his disciples for desiring vengeance against the town. One man wanted to follow Jesus when he had finished his duties at home. Jesus expressed that a man who begins a task, but constantly looks back is unfit for the reign of God.
