Third Sunday of Lent

3/12/23

Dear St. Joseph Parish Family,

This year our annual St. Joseph Parish Dinner will be on Saturday, March 25th, after the 5:30pm vigil Mass (so 6:30pm). Tickets are on sale at every Sunday Mass until we sell out. Tickets are $25 per adult (to cover some of the cost of the dinner). Monte's will be providing the food, as in previous dinners, so the food will be great! We'll have Catholic trivia again too! I hope to see everyone there.

This week after our St Joseph's dinner, the week of the 26th, will be our parish mission this year. Our former vicar at St. Joseph's, Fr. Cajetan Cuddy OP, will be the preacher this year. He's excited to come back to St. Joe's! He'll preach all the Sunday Masses the weekend before, and the parish mission will be Monday through Wednesday, 3/27-29, at 7pm in the church.

This Friday, 3/27, is the feast day of St. Patrick. St. Patrick is the patron saint of the Archdiocese of New York, and so the feast is celebrated as a solemnity within the Archdiocese. That means that you can eat meat on St. Patrick's Day even though it is on a Friday of Lent.

The day before St. Patrick's Day, 3/16, is the 190th anniversary of the Dedication of the Church of St. Joseph. Our parish was founded in 1829 and rented space until the church was built in 1833.

Mass Tidbit:

Next in preparation of the gifts comes the 'lavabo', where the priest ritually washes his hands before we enter more deeply into the liturgy of the Eucharist. The server walks to the priest with a cruet of water, a bowl to catch the water, and a purificator to serve as a towel. The server pours water over the priest's hands to ritually wash them. The priest quietly prays "Wash me, O Lord, from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin" as he washes his hands. The washing of the hands points to the need for the spiritual purification of the priest before he offers the sacrifice of the mass to God. It's always best to be spiritually prepared when one is to stand in the presence of the living God (e.g.: Leviticus 10: 1-5)!

God Bless,

Fr. Boniface Endorf O.P.

Giving Fire

We are fully on board with our new online donation system Giving Fire.

If you have not registered, please do so at your earliest convenience.

We are no longer sending preprinted giving envelopes. If you would like to have cash offerings tracked for tax purposes, there are envelopes available in the narthex.

You may also contribute online using the QR-code in your pew or the link on our website.

Catholic Center at NYU

The Catholic Center at NYU is the Catholic Campus Ministry for students of NYU and many other schools in NYC. While this ministry is just a couple blocks from St.

Joseph's and is also run by the Dominican friars, it is financially separate from the parish and depends on donations to continue. We have daily Holy Hour and Mass, student dinners, talks, and more students are coming all the time. Please continue supporting us so that we can continue this important ministry— visit nyucatholic.org/donate to learn more.
