Dear St. Joseph Parish Family,

This week's letter will be a bit scattershot, but here goes...

This weekend is commitment weekend for the Cardinal's Appeal. If you haven't given already please consider making a gift to support the Archdiocese of New York. Even if you can only give small gift, every bit of participation helps. You can give at <https://cardinalsappeal.org> and make sure to put St. Joseph's in Greenwich Village as your parish.

This Wednesday is our first Post-Cana marriage ministry meeting. All married couples are invited. The group seeks to support married couples and to help them more fully experience the graces of their sacramental marriage. It meets this Wednesday at 7pm in McGuire Hall. Fr. Ernest from the seminary will be giving a talk, followed by discussion.

Also, our new parish webpage is up! Check it out and see what you think. We're excited about it and hope that it will serve our parish well.

I'm not sure whether I've mentioned here that we have Stations of the Cross every Friday during Lent at 7pm in the Church. Please join us for these powerful Lenten prayers. And don't forget that this year we will finally have a parish mission (it's been awhile!) It'll be 4/4-7, Monday to Thursday, in the evening.

Finally, there are two interesting plays coming up at the Sheen Center that people may be interested in. The first is a documentary about Pope Francis's visit to Iraq and focuses on the Catholics there. The second features Ross Douthat, the Catholic reporter for the New York Times, and presents Ross discussing his struggle with Lyme disease. I think they will both be great and you find more information through the links below. They will both sell out so if you're interested grab tickets soon.

Have a blessed Lent,

Fr. Boniface Endorf O.P.

THE THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Exodus 3:1-8a, 13-15

Moses came upon a burning bush, when God called out to him. God told Moses that he had seen the suffering of his people in Egypt, and intended to lead them from their captors to a land of milk and honey. Moses asked what he should say if the Israelites should ask what God wished to be called. God replied, "I am who am."

Second Reading: 1Corinthians 10:1-6,10-12

Paul describes how the people were led into the desert by Moses, yet many of them were struck down by God. He warns that this should serve as an example not to give in to wicked desires or we may suffer the same downfall.

Gospel: Luke 13:1-9

Jesus says that an individual's misfortune does not mean that their sins were greater than someone else's. He warns that without repenting, all sinners will meet the same end. He tells of a barren fig tree whose owner planned to cut it down. But a servant offered to give it special care for one year, and destroy it should it remain barren. This symbolizes God's patience toward us.
