6th Sunday of Easter
5/22/22

Dear St. Joseph Parish Family,

Next Sunday, the 29th, after the 11:30am Mass, we'll be holding a going away party for Fr. John Baptist. That will be his last weekend at St. Joseph's and we hope everyone can stop by and wish him well.

This Thursday is Ascension Thursday, when Christ ascends to His heavenly throne. After Christ's resurrection he spends the time from Easter until Ascension Thursday with His apostles and disciples, and on Ascension Thursday He ascends to heaven. 9 days later the Holy Spirit descends upon the apostles at Pentecost and the apostles then start to spread the Gospel and build the Church. For details, read the Acts of the Apostles in the New Testament.

We will have a Wednesday 7pm Vigil Mass for the Ascension, and on Ascension Thursday we'll have the normal 12:10pm daily Mass and a 7pm evening Mass.

Also, if you've heard of novenas (prayers for 9 days in a row) these devotions originated in a prayer to the Holy Spirit prayed during the 9 days from Ascension Thursday to Pentecost Sunday. That's why novenas are 9 days of prayer! I encourage you to pray a novena to the Holy Spirit this year during the time from Ascension to Pentecost. There are many versions of this prayer that you can find online, but I've put a simple one below. Just pray it every day for the 9 days from Ascension to Pentecost.

God Bless,

Fr. Boniface Endorf O.P.

Novena to the Holy Spirit

Pray every day for the 9 days from Ascension Thursday to Pentecost Sunday:

Dearest Holy Spirit, confiding in Your deep, personal love for me, I am making this novena for the following request, if it be Your Holy Will to grant it:
(mention your request).

Teach me, Divine Spirit, to know and seek my last end; grant me the holy fear of God; grant me true contrition and patience.

Do not let me fall into sin. Give me an increase of faith, hope and charity, and bring forth in my soul all the virtues proper to my state in life.

Make me a faithful disciple of Jesus and an obedient child of the Church. Give me efficacious grace sufficient to keep the Commandments and to receive the Sacraments worthily. Give me the four Cardinal Virtues, Your Seven Gifts, Your Twelve Fruits.

Raise me to perfection in the state of life to which You have called me and lead me through a happy death to everlasting life.

I ask this through Christ our Lord, Amen.

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 15:1-2, 22-29

Some men informed the Gentiles that they must be circumcised if they wished to be saved, because of the Old Laws. Disciples then went forth to tell the Gentiles to honor only those rules which were strictly necessary, such as abstaining from eating meat sacrificed to idols and illicit sexual union.

Second Reading: Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23

John depicts Jerusalem coming out of heaven, sparkling with the radiance of precious jewels. Angels were stationed at each of its twelve gates, and each gate bore the name of one tribe of Israel. The city had no temple, because God was its temple. The glory and light of God and the Lamb also replaced their need for the sun.

Gospel: John 14:23-29

Jesus tells his disciples, "Anyone who loves me will be true to my word." For those who do honor his word, both Jesus and God will love them and stay with them always. He also tells them that God will send the Holy Spirit in his place to give them the instructions they will need. Jesus then tells them that peace is his farewell gift to them.
