A Word From Our Pastor

31ST Sunday in Ordinary Time
11/5/23

Dear St. Joseph Parish Family,

This Tuesday we celebrate All Dominican Saints and on Wednesday All Dominican Souls. Dominicans always celebrate these feasts a week after All Saints and All Souls Days. It's good to pray for those we've loved who've passed on and you can always have a Mass offered for your loved ones. Just contact the parish office to have a Mass offered. It's a great way to help those we've loved.

God Bless,

Fr. Boniface Endorf O.P.

Mass Tidbit:

We now have the 2nd long list of names in the Eucharistic Prayer. It continues "with John the Baptist, Stephen, Matthias, Barnabas..." We all know who John the Baptist is, so we'll start with Stephen:

Stephen: One of the first deacons (Acts 6:5) and the protomartyr (first martyr after Christ). He was martyred by stoning and St. Paul (then Saul) was there just before his conversion. St. Stephen gave a long speech just before his death that's recorded in the Acts of the Apostles. You can read about his arrest, speech, and death in Acts 6-7. The site of his martyrdom is now St. Stephen Church in Jerusalem and is a Dominican Church that also houses an important Scripture School, also run by the Dominicans, the École Biblique. St. Stephen's feast day is December 26th, the day after Christmas, because he was the first to follow Christ in martyrdom.

Matthias: The man chosen to be the replacement Apostle for Judas Iscariot (Acts 1:12- 26). Little is known about St. Matthias except that he died a martyr.

Barnabas: An Apostle, although, like St. Paul, not one of the original twelve. Barnabas labored with St. Paul for the conversion of the Gentiles, even convincing St. Paul to go to Antioch for that purpose. Barnabas is mentioned throughout the Acts of the Apostles for his work of evangelization. St. Luke, who wrote the Acts of the Apostles, broke his usual reserve and described Barnabas as "a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and faith." (Acts 11:24)

Gold Mass For Scientists

On Wednesday, November 15th at 7pm, on the feast of St. Albert the Great, the Society of Catholic Scientists will host a Gold Mass for all scientists, science educators, university and high school students, and all those with an interest in the relationship between faith and science. Please join us in McGuire Hall following Mass for a light reception and talk: "Demonstration and Certainty in Thomistic Philosophy of Nature" with special guest speaker Fr. Ambrose Little, O.P.

Adoration Chapel Announcement

Since our July 30th Adoration Chapel opening, almost 500 people have signed up! God is certainly blessing His chapel!

Now our goal is to start Exposition! In order to have the Eucharist exposed in the monstrance (Exposition), there must be someone present adoring Him in the chapel. Jesus cannot be left exposed in the monstrance unattended. We currently do not have any large blocks of time where we can have Exposition; thus, our goal is to try to fill every adoration block from 8am to 6pm, Monday to Friday, so that we can have Exposition during those times.

Out of our 495 adorers, only 116 have a recurring adoration commitment. As a first step, we would like to fill the Monday and Thursday slots from 8am to 6pm. Please consider making a commitment to adoring our Lord during those times and make sure to ask others to join in. We are already only 11 more commitments away from meeting this goal!

SIGN UP TO BE AN ADORER.
