A Word From Our Pastor

28TH Sunday in Ordinary Time
10/15/23

Dear St. Joseph Parish Family,

This Friday, 10/20, we have the second of our three Fall Thomistic Institute talks. Dr. Joe Zalot will talk about “Deciding to Die Well.” We’ll all face death at some point and we have to deal with it throughout our lives. This talk will help prepare us for how to handle it well when that cross comes our way. The talk will be held in McGuire Hall and the doors open at 6:30pm and the talk starts at 7pm. It should be a great talk!

Our regular ministries are also running, so this week we have our Men’s Group on Monday and our Mother’s Group on Tuesday—see the parish webpage for details. There’s a lot happening at St. Joseph so make sure to take part and reap the graces God wants to give you.

God Bless,

Fr. Boniface Endorf O.P.

Mass Tidbit:

The priest now bows, joining his hands, and prays: “In humble prayer we ask you, almighty God: command that these gifts be borne by the hands of your holy Angel to your altar on high in the sight of your divine majesty, so that all of us, who through this participation at the altar receive the most holy Body of Blood of your Son, [here the priest stands upright and signs himself with the Sign of the Cross] may be filled with every grace and heavenly blessing. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.”

We see here the mediation of the angels: they play a role in our worship as messengers, which is what the word ‘angel’ means. They stand between God and us not to block but to aid our union with God. As our prayers and sacrifices rise to heaven, we ask that God descend, as He has in the Eucharist, to us. We ask that as we receive the Eucharist we may be filled with the graces and heavenly blessings we’ll need to make our way to heaven—to be blessed with the angels and stand before God. All of that is made possible through Christ our Lord.

Masses for All Souls

November is a month in which prayers are especially offered for the repose of the souls of the faithful departed. For the rest of October, a book will be placed near the entrance of the church where you can write the names of departed family members and friends. In November, starting on All Souls Day (Nov. 2), we will offer a novena series of Masses for all the people listed in the book.

Mass for Healthcare Workers

On Wednesday, October 18 at 6:30pm at St. Catherine of Siena (411 E. 68th St), the Catholic Medical Association and Dominican Healthcare Ministry will host a St. Luke Mass for Healthcare Workers. World Mission Sunday - Oct 22nd

Next weekend, we'll unite with fellow Catholics globally to mark World Mission Sunday. As we reflect on Pope Francis' compelling theme, "Hearts on Fire, Feet on the Move", we're invited to kindle the flames of Christ's love and spread its warmth to mission territories in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe. Thank you for being a beacon of Christ's Love!
