A Word From Our Pastor

Easter Sunday
3/31/24

Dear St. Joseph Parish Family,

Happy Easter! Let us rejoice in Christ's resurrection, His triumph over sin and death. His victory is our victory; His journey to life beyond death is ours too if we follow Him. Today we celebrate that no matter how hard our lives may be, how much we may suffer, how much the world and its evil may press upon us, our lives will have a joyful and blessed ending if we stay with Jesus. The cross is not a final dead end, but a path to eternal life. It is so because of what Jesus did today: He rose from the dead, the firstborn of the many who follow.

We no longer need fear anything so long as we stay close to Christ and allow His victory to be ours. Our joy is certain and thus we have the freedom to rejoice in even the darkest moments. Let us then rejoice for Christ's victory has made our joy possible.

God Bless,

Fr. Boniface Endorf O.P.

NightFire April Edition!

Friday, April 26, 8 – 11pm

NightFire is an evening of prayer, an opportunity to talk to God and praise him in Eucharistic Adoration. It is an evening to invite and welcome all into the Church to encounter Christ. Take a moment to say thank you, to say a prayer and light a candle for someone close to you, to be still and receive the Lord's love in the quiet of your heart.

IN NEED OF USHERS

We are in need of volunteers at our Sunday Masses to man the doors, greet people as they enter, and assist with the collection. If you are willing to help, please contact secretary@stjosephgv.nyc and we will connect you with our usher team for training.
