A Word From Our Pastor

5th Sunday of Ordinary Time
2/6/22

Dear St. Joseph Parish Family,

We've been starting a lot of new ministries at St. Joseph's in the past couple months—that's why our Sunday announcements have gotten so long! You can always check our parish website (www.stjosephgv.nyc) for information about all the ministries to see which ones you'd like to join. They are more in the works so make sure to listen to those announcements: you may find the one you've been looking for. Also, if you're interested in volunteering to help with any of the ministries just let us know, we'd be happy for the help.

We're also about to complete a new parish webpage, so keep an eye out for our redesigned look. I hope that it will be more useful and beautiful than before!

Have a blessed week,

God Bless,

Fr. Boniface Endorf O.P.

THE FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8

Isaiah recounts the awe he felt the first time he saw the Lord, who was surrounded by angels. He began to feel despair because he was a man of unclean lips, until an angel touched an ember to his lips and pronounced them clean. The Lord asked who he should send forth, to which Isaiah replied, "Here I am, send me!"

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:1-11

Paul reminds the Corinthians that Christ died for us to free us from our sins. He encourages them to remember the importance of Jesus' death and resurrection. He admits that he initially failed to believe, and therefore was very grateful to be called an apostle and preach in the name of Christ.

Gospel: Luke 5:1-11

Luke tells of Jesus preaching to a crowd, then joining Peter who was about to end a fruitless day of fishing. He told Peter to lower his net back in, and a great number of fish were caught. Upon seeing this, Peter and his companions, James and John, immediately abandoned their nets to follow Jesus.

"The book of Proverbs tells us, 'as iron sharpens iron, so one man sharpens another.'

St. Joseph's is starting a Men's Group to encourage and support men over the age of 18 to be better husbands, fathers, sons, and citizens. The group will feature Father Boniface presenting his famous Battles series, studying 7 historical battles from Cannae to Midway, and how to apply their lessons in combating sin. Join us for prayer, fraternity, and fellowship in the parish hall on the first and third Mondays of every month at 7 PM. Please Contact the Parish Office for more details.

Women's Group Starts Tuesday February 8th @7pm in McGuire Hall

We would like to invite all women to a new ministry starting at St Joe's, the Women's Group, a fellowship of women meeting each other and walking together in their daily lives to become future saints.

This ministry is open to women of all ages, and we will be reading together and applying our reflections to how God is working in our own lives, discussing our experiences and aims in life as women of faith. For the first meeting there won't be any preparation needed.
