Dear St. Joseph Parish Family,

Today is the 2nd Sunday of Easter, the end of the Easter Octave, and Divine Mercy Sunday. We celebrate God's work of salvation in the world and our lives, so let us today give thanks to God for His goodness is the source of all good things.

Also, thank you to everyone who volunteered this Easter. Many parishioners helped serve at the Triduum and Easter Masses as ushers, readers, and servers, as well as those who spent many hours decorating the church for Easter. Thank you for the goodness you brought to St. Joseph's with the beautiful flower arrangements and beautiful liturgies!

God Bless,

Fr. Boniface Endorf O.P.

Mass Tidbit:

We are now entering the Easter Season. White is the color for Masses now and there are many more alleluias in the Mass and liturgy texts. This Season ends with Pentecost, so it stretches from Christ's Resurrection at Easter, through His Ascension into heaven, and ends with His sending the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. Let us give thanks for all the gifts Christ gives us during this Season!

Catholic Center at NYU

Catholic Center at NYU is the Catholic Campus Ministry for students of NYU and many other schools in NYC. While this ministry is just a couple blocks from St. Joseph's and is also run by the Dominican friars, it is financially separate from the parish and depends on donations to continue. We have daily Holy Hour and Mass, student dinners, talks, and more students are coming all the time. Please continue supporting us so that we can continue this important ministry—visit <http://nyucatholic.org/donate> to learn more.
