A Word From Our Pastor

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

8/28/22

Dear St. Joseph Parish Family,

This week classes begin again at NYU so we'll be seeing students returning to the NYU Catholic Center and to St. Joseph's on the weekends. It's exciting to see the parish year get rolling again! The parish will begin filling up again and ministries will begin to come back online.

Also, one of the ministries restarting is RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults), which is the program for people wanting to enter the Catholic Church. We have a very good RCIA program at St. Joseph's—all the classes are taught by friars and they are taught on a deeper level than almost any other program. It meets Sundays from mid-September until the Easter Vigil. If you know anyone who may be interested in becoming Catholic, now is the time to start talking about joining RCIA. It also is for adult baptized Catholics who have not yet received confirmation.

God Bless,

Fr. Boniface Endorf O.P.

Mass Tidbit:

After the sign of the cross, the priest then says: “The Lord be with you,” while the people respond: “And with your spirit.” This short dialogue is very old; the first recorded example of it is from AD 215. The priest is praying that the Holy Spirit will be with the people—that God's grace will lift them up as they come to worship God in the Mass.

The people's response can sound strange today. It's only ever said to ordained ministers—bishops, priests, and deacons. It refers to the graces given to them in ordination, the sacrament of Holy Orders. Just as baptism changes the deepest part of our souls for all eternity, marking us as children of God and thus able to properly worship God in the liturgy, so too does ordination change the recipient's soul eternally on the deepest level, marking him a minister (bishop, priest, or deacon) of Jesus Christ and giving him the graces to fulfill his role within the Church and her sacraments. The people are praying that those graces from the sacrament of Holy Orders will lift up the priest to fulfill his role in worshipping God at the Mass.

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29

Those who are humble will find favor with God. Everyone should realize that there is much we can learn from each other. Even the most knowledgeable people need to be humble enough to know that they can still learn from others.

Second Reading: Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24a

The Hebrews are informed that they are not approaching an untouchable mountain etched with gloom and fear. Rather, they have neared "the city of the living God, Jerusalem." The Hebrews have approached a joyful gathering of angels, God our judge, and Jesus, who brought us a new covenant.

Gospel: Luke 14:1, 7-14

Jesus went to share a meal with one of the leading Pharisees when he noticed other guests competing for places of honor at the table. He warned that a guest who takes the place of honor may be asked to move to the lowest place. Yet a guest who takes the lowest place is honored when a better position is offered by their host. He then added, "He who humbles himself will be exalted."
