A Word From Our Pastor

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time
1/21/23

Dear St. Joseph Parish Family,

You've likely noticed the new paintings in the Church! Lucy Rahner, a St. Joseph parishioner, has been working on these paintings for the past two years. I'm excited to finally have them completed and in place! Lucy also painted the saints border in McGuire Hall. This Friday, 1/26, at 7pm, Lucy will give a presentation on the paintings in the church. There will be a gathering in the parish hall afterwards. Please join us and learn more about the artwork at St. Joseph's. Our ministries are up and running again so please consider joining any you are interested in. See our webpage for details.

God Bless,

Fr. Boniface Endorf O.P.

Mass Tidbit:

It's been awhile since we've had a Mass Tidbit, but we had just completed the Eucharistic Prayer and are now moving into the Communion Rite. The priest says "At the Savior's command and formed by divine teaching, we dare to say:" And then we all say or sing the Our Father.

We are both commanded to say and dare to say—a strange combination. God as our creator is not strictly speaking 'Our Father,' because we cannot, on that ground, claim a familial relationship. It's God's initiative that makes it possible. Jesus has reunited us with God, and through His adoption of our human nature has enabled our adoption into His Divine Nature, making us adopted children of God. God commands what we would otherwise not dare to ask because He has given us what we would have been rash and impudent to request on our own, but what God has deigned to give us. How could we even request something as great as being adopted children of God without God having told us to do so? But He has, and so we pray as He taught us, praying "Our Father..."

2024 Cardinal's Annual Stewardship Appeal

CONSIDER YOUR GIFT

The Cardinal's Annual Stewardship Appeal has served the people and parishes of our 10 counties for 40 years. To date our parish has received: 2 pledges, totaling $2,040.00 towards our goal of $67,800.00.

COFFEE & SUCH

Sunday, January 21st

Come get a cuppa Joe at St Joe's!

Directly after the 11:30am Mass

Join other St Joe's parishioners for some coffee and light breakfast fare on the parish steps today directly following the 11:30am Mass! It's a great way to meet other people in the parish (and send a warm witness of our community to those passing by on the street).

Chapel Announcement

We are so pleased to announce that we will begin to have Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament every Monday from 8am to 6pm. Please consider making a commitment to adoring our Lord during these times and make sure to ask others to join in. Our adoration chapel is brand new and we're working, with your help, to fill all the adoration slots. Please sign up with the QR code above.
