A Word From Our Pastor

7/10/22

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear St. Joseph Parish Family,

We are in the midst of summer and things are slow at the parish. There is not much to announce, so instead I'll use this time to restart the Mass tidbits that I was writing before the pandemic. We had finished the physical structure of the church building, so I think we left off at the beginning of the Mass.

Mass tidbit: Genuflecting.

When entering the church, usually for Mass, the first thing people do before sitting is genuflect to the tabernacle. We genuflect to the Lord present in the Eucharist, on our right knee. Traditionally, one genuflected on one's left knee for royalty, and on one's the right knee for God.

There is a candle near the tabernacle called a sanctuary lamp that lets people know that the Blessed Sacrament, the Eucharist, is reserved in the tabernacle. When the sacrament is not in the tabernacle, mostly during Holy Week from after the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday until the end of the Easter Vigil, we don't genuflect when entering the church because Jesus is not present in the tabernacle, instead simply bowing to the altar. When the Eucharist is present, then we genuflect when entering or exiting the church, usually just before sitting in a pew or upon leaving the pew.

Additionally, it is common when having already genuflected to bow when crossing in front of the tabernacle or altar. You can see the priests and servers bowing when crossing the altar during Mass. They only genuflect when entering or leaving the church, and otherwise only bow when crossing in front of the altar or tabernacle.

Have a blessed week,

Fr. Boniface Endorf O.P.

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Deuteronomy 30:10-14
Moses petitions the people to follow the commandments God has set before them. He reminds them that the laws are not in the sky or far away at sea, but are accessible to them and meant to be followed if they wish to prosper.

Second Reading: Colossians 1:15-20
Paul discusses the divine nature of Jesus, and explains that Jesus was created before anything else. Everything else was "created through him, and for him."

Gospel: Luke 10:25-37

While discussing everlasting life, a lawyer mentions loving one's neighbor as oneself. The lawyer then asks Jesus, "Who is my neighbor?" Jesus tells him about a man beaten by robbers, who was ignored by both a priest and a Levite before a Samaritan stopped and offered him aid. Jesus asks the lawyer who was neighbor to the injured man. The lawyer says "the one who treated him with compassion." Jesus encourages him to go and do the same.
