Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Our fearless leader, Fr. Boniface, returns today, but alas the bulletin letter has to be written midweek.

Fr. Bartholomew departs today leaving Br. Brendan as the last summer friar standing. Even though our summer guests are leaving, August does not represent a return to normal. We will still have a number of friars from around the province stopping by for short visits.

While Fr. Boniface was away, our chapel project advanced another step. The space is now officially asbestos-free, so it is cleared for the remaining construction. Things have not been moving as fast as we had hoped, but there is light at the end of the tunnel. In the fall, we'll start signing up adorers. Hopefully, there will be participation from throughout the island of Manhattan.

The beginning of August is full of celebrations for the Dominican Order and the Church as a whole. On Tuesday, we mark the feast of St. Dominic's mother, Blessed Jane of Asa. Blessed Jane consecrated her son to the Lord while he was in the womb. Dominic's name reflects the consecration because it means "belonging to the Lord" and because Bl. Jane made this dedication at an abbey dedicated to St. Dominic of Silos.

On Saturday, we celebrate the Transfiguration of the Lord, an important feast day because of its role in the revelation of Christ's divinity. It is also the day that St. Dominic died in 1221. Because of the importance of that feast day, the celebration for St. Dominic's own feast day has always been on another day. Currently, we celebrate him August 8th.

This fortnight of celebrations concludes with the Assumption of Mary on August 15th. In normal years, this is a holy day of obligation, but the U.S. bishops give us a break when it falls on Monday. Because the Dominican Order has a special dedication to Mary, August 15th is the traditional day for friars to make the first profession of vows. All of the friars at St. Joseph made first vows in Cincinnati, Ohio on August 15th from 7 (Fr. Isaiah and Br. Martin) to 14 (Br. Paul) years ago.

In Christ,

Fr. Clement Dickie, O.P.
Parochial Vicar

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Ecclesiastes 1:2, 2:21-23

"Vanity of vanities." Sometimes we may work for wealth, wisdom and knowledge only to discover that it has been left for some one who did not toil for it. The offering of our work, fatigue and pain, if not for God, can also be a kind of vanity.

Second Reading: Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11

Paul urges us to seek what is good and from God, encouraging us to put our minds on the spiritual. He reminds us that, as Christians, we have died with Christ and are hidden with Christ until his glory is once again revealed. We are all one in Christ.

Gospel: Luke 12:13-21

On being requested to settle a question of inheritance, Jesus heeds us to beware of all covetousness because our life does not consist on the wealth of possessions. Through the lesson of a parable Jesus reinforces this teaching, explaining that those who store up the treasures of wealth and possessions are not the richest in God's eyes.

Second Collection August 6th and August 7th

The family always serves as the domestic Church- but so many young people, families in Kenya have a special responsibility to encourage the spiritual development of their children. With your support to Pastoral Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa Catholic families in Kenya and throughout Africa can do just that.

These new ministries help families build stronger relationships with one another and with God. The Church in Africa needs your help to ensure that all the faithful have the resources to help them grow in our faith.

Please be as generous as you can be to this second collection.
