A Word From Our Pastor

5th Sunday of Easter
5/15/22

Dear St. Joseph Parish Family,

We have a lot going on this week as our Religious Education program comes to its conclusion this year. This Tuesday evening Bishop Whalen, an auxiliary bishop for New York, will be here for our parish Confirmation Mass. He'll be celebrating the sacrament of Confirmation for our parishioners who have been preparing for it in our Religious Education program. Next Sunday, at the 9am Mass, we'll hold First Communion for our young parishioners who also have been preparing all year. Please keep them all in your prayers as they continue to grow in their faith and spiritual journey.

Also, this Wednesday, is the NYU commencement and the end of the academic year at the NYU Catholic Center. It seems like the year is winding up and we're finally about to begin summer!

Coming up we have Ascension Thursday, Pentecost, and Corpus Christi, when we'll continue to hold our Corpus Christi procession. There is much to be excited about in the weeks ahead and I look forward to celebrating them with everyone at St. Joseph's. We're also planning to expand ministries this Fall when everyone returns to the city—our hope is to have an even more vibrant parish this upcoming year.

Have a blessed Easter Season,

Fr. Boniface Endorf O.P.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 14:21-27

Paul and Barnabas traveled to many towns and found many disciples willing to help them preach. They warned their disciples of the trials they would face. Paul and Barnabas then returned to Antioch, where their journey had begun, and told the congregation there of the progress they had made.

Second Reading: Revelation 21:1-5a

John had a vision of a new earth, and a new Jerusalem coming down from heaven. Then a voice described Jerusalem as a place where God would live among his people and comfort them. The former world had vanished, and pain, death and suffering had left the world as well.

Gospel: John 13:31-33a, 34-35

After Judas left the last supper, Jesus warned the other disciples that he would not be with them much longer. Jesus gave them a new commandment to love one another as he had loved them. He stated that their love for each other would distinguish them as his disciples.
