A Word From Our Pastor

7th Sunday of Easter
5/29/22

Dear St. Joseph Parish Family,

I hope that everyone has a blessed Memorial Day weekend! We are also celebrating the time between Ascension Thursday (last Thursday) and Pentecost, when the apostles waited for the Holy Spirit to come down upon them. In many ways that wait is like our time now: we know Christ is in heaven and we await His return. We live in a strange final age when Christ has conquered sin and death, but that victory is awaiting its final manifestation at the end of time. We are in a strange already and not yet: we face the cross, suffering, anxiety, sin and death, and yet we know they no longer have the final word. We live in an age of hope and await the fulfillment of that hope which will bring us the joy we all long for. Let us pray this week that the Holy Spirit will lead us through this age just as He did the apostles at Pentecost. We are still on our pilgrimage on earth, but as long as we keep our faith and hope alive we know that we will reach our destination—eternal life with God in heaven. And while on that journey make sure to enjoy the little things too—even grilling out with family and friends on Memorial Day!

Have a blessed week,

Fr. Boniface Endorf O.P.

SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 7:55-60

Stephen was filled with the Holy Spirit, and described seeing Jesus standing at God's right hand. Then he was dragged away and stoned to death before many witnesses who did not believe his words. Before dying he cried, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them."

Second Reading: Revelation 22:12-14, 16-17, 20

John hears a voice saying, "Remember I am coming soon!" This messenger for Jesus says that he will come to reward those who are deserving. Those who hear the call of the Spirit are encouraged to answer by accepting Jesus.

Gospel: John 17:20-26

Jesus prays for all the people who will believe in him through the words of his disciples. His prayer is that the world will live in unity, with Jesus living in us as he lives in God. Although we have not known God, we know Jesus was sent by God because of his love for us. He prays that this love will live on in all people.
