A Word From Our Pastor

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time
10/22/23

Dear St. Joseph Parish Family,

This Friday we have the final talk of our three Fall Thomistic Institute talks. Dr. Bronwen McShea will talk about “Forgotten Lay Patronesses of the Church.” She’ll share some really great stories about fascinating women in Church history. It will be in McGuire Hall and the doors open at 6:00pm, the talk starts at 6:30 pm. It’ll be a great talk!

Our All Souls Novena starts on All Souls Day, Nov. 2nd. November is a month in which prayers are especially offered for the repose of the souls of the faithful departed. For the rest of October, a book is in the narthex of the church where you can write the names of departed family members and friends. In November, starting on All Souls Day (Nov. 2), we will offer a novena series of Masses for all of the people listed in the book.

God Bless,

Fr. Boniface Endorf O.P.

Mass Tidbit:

We now move to remembering the deceased. The priest prays: “Remember also, Lord, your servants who have gone before us with the sign of faith and rest in the sleep of peace. [brief pause to pray silently for specific people] Grant them, O Lord, we pray, and all sleep in Christ, a place of refreshment, light, and peace. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.” We are united with the whole Church, which includes those who have passed away. We can and should pray for them, and here in the Mass is the moment to do so. We pray for their salvation, and our prayer is always through Christ to the Father and in the Holy Spirit.

Weekly Collection

Book of Remembrance - Masses for All Souls

November is a month in which prayers are especially offered for the repose of the souls of the faithful departed. For the rest of October, a book will be placed near the entrance of the church where you can write the names of departed family members and friends. In November, starting on All Souls Day (Nov. 2), we will offer a novena series of Masses for all the people listed in the book.

World Mission Sunday - Oct 22nd

This weekend, we'll unite with fellow Catholics globally to mark World Mission Sunday. As we reflect on Pope Francis' compelling theme, "Hearts on Fire, Feet on the Move", we're invited to kindle the flames of Christ's love and spread its warmth to mission territories in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe.

Please prayerfully consider giving online by using the QR code below or by using the envelopes available in the narthex.
